

LIPID METABOLISM, DIABETES, AND OBESITY

The Open Medical Institute offers postgraduate seminars led by world-renowned faculty to Latin American physicians. OMI MEX seminars are three-day intensive courses hosted in Mexico City consisting of state-of-the-art lectures, case presentations, workshops, and discussions. They are offered to highly qualified, English-speaking physicians, who have completed their specialization or are in its final stages.

---

Academic Partner: Weill Cornell Medicine

Course Director: Jessica M. Pena, MD, MPH, FACC, FNLA, FAHA

Date: July 13-15, 2026

Venue: Conferencia Interamericana de Seguridad Social (CISS)
Av. San Ramón No. 5, Col. Independencia San Ramon, La Magdalena Contreras
10200 Mexico City
Mexico

---

FELLOWSHIPS INCLUDE

- Course materials
  - Accommodation
  - Breakfast, coffee breaks, and lunch
  - Travel reimbursement (based on guidelines per country)
-

APPLICATION

- Registration via portal.openmedicalinstitute.org
-

SEMINAR HIGHLIGHTS

- Highly interactive format
  - Knowledge exchange
  - Internationally recognized faculty teaches pro bono
  - Exclusive access to unique networking
  - Certified courses featuring Weill Cornell Medicine
-

CONTACT

Gustavo Rommel
Program Coordinator
g.rommel@openmedicalinstitute.org

 openmedicalinstitute.org
 openmedicalinstitute